

From: Carl J. Clement
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 11/17/01 4:39pm
Subject: microsoft settlement

Microsoft has been an innovative company which has contributed valuable standards to the computer industry.

The anti-trust suit against Microsoft represents a tawdry attempt by its unworthy competitors to accomplish by government fiat what they couldn't accomplish by good old-fashioned honest competition.

The Federal settlement should not be punitive, and the States should accept it.

Cordially,

Carl J. Clement